

Last Will and Testament

of Elijah Corder - Warren County, Virginia

Warren Co. Crt Hs. Wills

I Elijah Corder being in sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First.. all my property real personal and ____ wherever situation give devise and bequeath to my wife Ellen Corder for ever during her life she has been to me a true and faithful wife and after her death I will devise and bequeath all of my said property to my son George Lewis Corder. He has been to me a loving son has ____ came of me and his mother during all my sickness and has ever helped out to me a helping hand. I make him my devisee and legatee after the death of my wife in that account and ____ are my other children not be caused do not live them but because they are all getting on well I also wish George Lewis Corder to have a home with her mother during her life.

Also my son Elijah Corder whom also a home I nominate Geo. Lewis Corder the executer of this last will and testament.

his Elijah Corder
mark

S.R. Millar

R.B. Bayly

We who have the signed our names hereto in the presence of each other and the said testate who has since ____ came in same in ____ presence declaring to be his last will and testament this 16 day of April 1910 the words I nominate George Lewis Corder as the executer of the my last will without security being indicated at request of testator.

S.R. Millar

R.B. Bayly

